

AUTOMATED IRRIGATION SYSTEM

Description: Working model of an automatic irrigation control system that detects whether the soil is dry. If so, it provides water supply till the time the soil is moist enough. This helps reduces the human efforts as well as keeps an eye on the timely irrigation of the soil.

