IOT BASED SMART SALINE MONITORING SYSTEM

Description: Building a working model of an IOT Based system that will help monitor the saline level of the patients once the system has been set according to the patient's requirements. Besides, it will provide alarm indication when it's time to replace the saline or the limit has been reached as per the settings, thereby, reducing the chances of mishaps due to failure in continuous monitoring by the nurses or doctors.